Boar Out There

9 0 1

Chapter 1 by Kaylen Tavarez

Jenny was starting to get more and more nervous about what was going to happen. The boar was staring straight into her little brown eyes. She started to walk slowly toward the small black boar. The boar just stood there waiting to see what Jenny would do him. Then Jenny started to pet the boar with her little hot nervous hands. The boar felt soft and slippery. The boar started to feel protective and growled at Jenny. The boar was getting more and more irritated so he started to chase after her once again.

The boar was running as fast as the flash. All of a sudden another boar comes running at the other boar. It turned out it was the baby boar. The baby boar and the mother boar both started chasing after Jenny. They were very chubby and were very fast runners.

Jenny was finally able to outrun the boars. She ran as fast as her little legs could carry her. She ran behind the old black dodge and caught her breath. Jenny had hoped that the boars would not be able to see any evidence that would lead to finding her. Jenny thought about an affect that would happen if the boars found her. She remembered that the boars could try to hurt her. Then she started running to find somewhere to sleep without letting the boars find her.
